5. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

- Importance of Disclosure
 - Consumer Insurance Contract
Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form and/or all the questions required by the Company fully and accurately and disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied, otherwise it may result in avoidance of contract, claim denied or reduced, terms changed or varied, or contract terminated.

○ Non-Consumer Insurance Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance for purposes related to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to disclose any matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied and any matter a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant, otherwise it may result in avoidance of contract, claim denied or reduced, terms changed or varied, or contract terminated.

This duty of disclosure for Consumer and Non-Consumer Insurance Contract shall continue until the time the contract is entered into, varied or renewed. You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us, any of the information given is inaccurate or has changed.

- You must inform your insurance intermediary or us in writing on any material changes during the policy period so that the necessary amendments are endorsed to your policy.
- You shall take all reasonable steps to safeguard against loss or damage and/or theft.
- Excess, being the amount you have to bear before we indemnify you.
- You must ensure that the sum insured is adequate, otherwise average condition will apply for under insurance at the time of loss. You will be deemed to be self-insuring for the difference. You may login to www.amassurance.com.my to use Building Cost Calculator (BCC) as your reference.
- This insurance is subjected to 60 days Premium Warranty, i.e. premium due must be paid and received by us within sixty (60) days from inception. Failing which, policy is automatically cancelled and we are entitled to the pro rata premium on the period we have been on risk.
